EVERGREEN

GREENFIELD HIGH SCHOOL
GREENFIELD, MASS.

G374 444
G81 1-66
c 3

The whirlwind year comes upon us quickly,
envelopes us, tosses, pushes,
shoves us, then abruptly
ends, and leaves us looking back, breathless.

It whirls away with our tears, our laughter, our experiences, heartaches, joys, leaving us only our
picture-book minds,
memories.

Another unique year is gone, leaving us smiling at
good times, good friends, regretting harsh words or
deeds or wasted time;
we look back at its passing,
happy, sad
bewildered.

The Evergreen with words and pictures strives to capture just a glimpse of the uniqueness, the beauty,
the love, the living of this one year, the year of 1966.

VOCATIONAL SCHOOL

The vocational shop is an integral part of our school. Here boys learn lessons which will become valuable tools in the working world, the skills of a printer, carpenter, machinist, or auto mechanic. The boys become active in extracurricular activities from varsity sports to student organizations, often helping out other organizations by printing materials and constructing props. The boys would like to extend a special thanks to Mr. Packard for his understanding and guidance throughout the years.

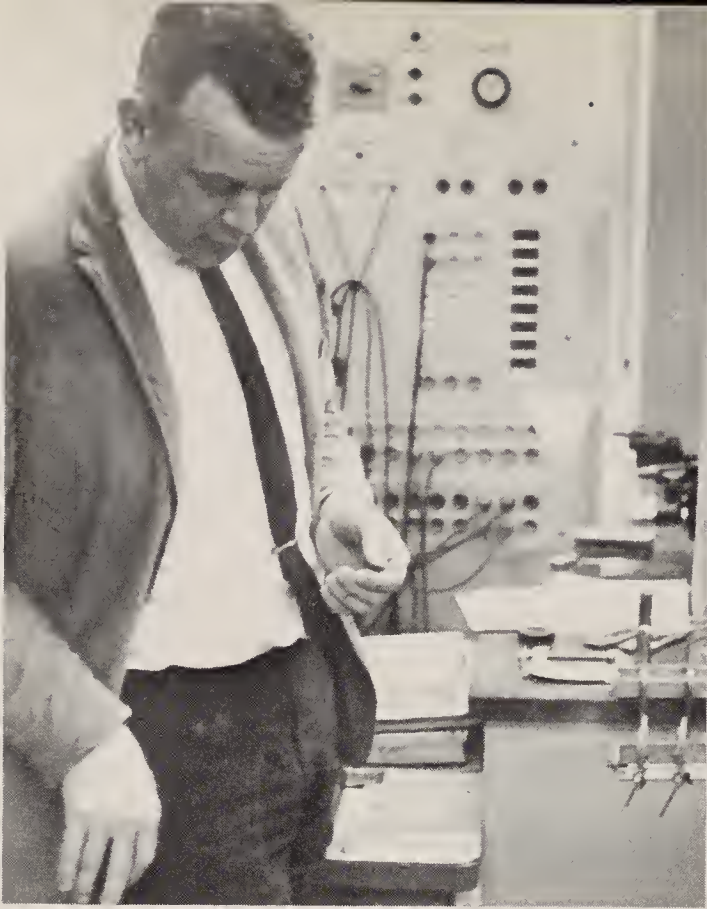

DEDICATION

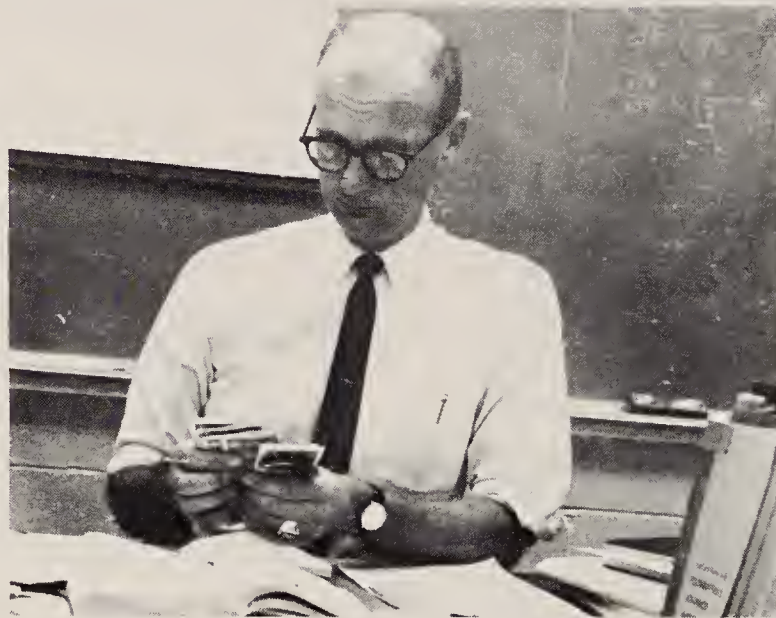

Mr. John Thompson, the Class of 1966 dedicates this Evergreen to you. It will be a long time before we forget how much you've done for us. You believed in us when others still treated us like children. When we were discouraged and tired you took the time to listen to us, to give us a word of encouragement when others said they were too busy. You laughed with us, cheered at our games, sympathized with us. For your understanding and guidance, we thank you Uncle Jack.

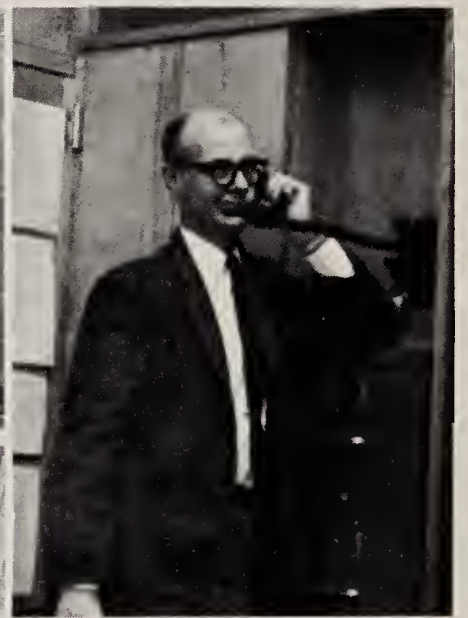

TEACHER CANDIDS

"Hey, they were both brown this morning!"

"1 . . . 2 . . . 3 . . . 4 . . .

"Give me $25 on Pythagorean Polly!"

Do I have to?"

"Who me? Chewing gum?"

"My wife gave me this haircut!"

Through the years teachers have played an important part in our growing up. Sometimes they have appeared as unreasonable to us as we must have appeared to them. Sometimes we felt as though they had skipped their teenage years altogether and so could never understand us. Some of them, however, have been a great influence in our lives. As we get older our appreciation grows. In moments like those pictured here, we have laughed at them, but the laughter has created stronger bonds between student and teacher.

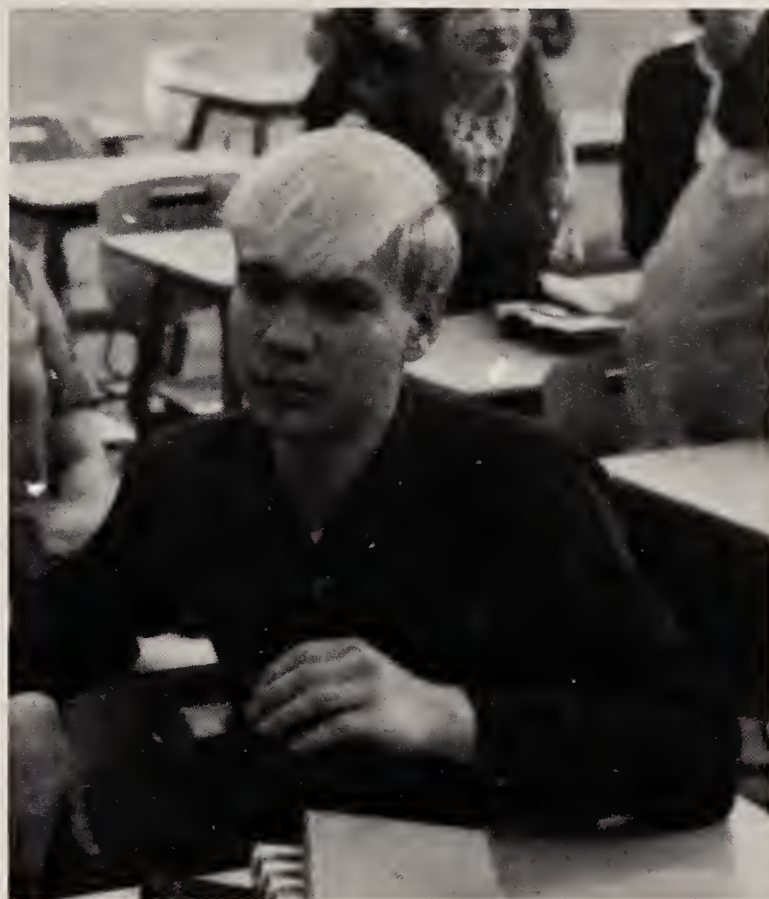

"Out, damned spot!"

"You bellowed?"

There were the moments of quiet. Times when it was enough just to be close to someone you liked, to be able to touch him. Times for sitting alone in the lounge or listening to records or quietly studying. These were the moments for the dreams of yesterday, the visions of tomorrow . . . the quiet times at G.H.S.

There were moments of relaxation. These were the times to jokingly threaten a friend, let loose a pet snake, examine the nature of a super ball, or just whoop it up in the cafeteria. When the snow fell we went tobogganing and when the sun shone we congregated at the Pump or at the Beacon Street courts. At these times new friends were made and old friendships strengthened — friendships which will last long after the memories of G.H.S. have dimmed.

There were so many things to do after school — Teen Scene and Exponent articles to write and type, meetings to attend, dances to organize and the cafe to decorate. In our last year of high school the responsibilities were greater than ever before. We were now the leaders, new ideas and their execution were up to us. Booster Day, the Senior Play, graduation exercises, these activities had to be carried out by us. With these responsibilities, these pressures, the adult world slowly, yet in some ways all too quickly, engulfed us.

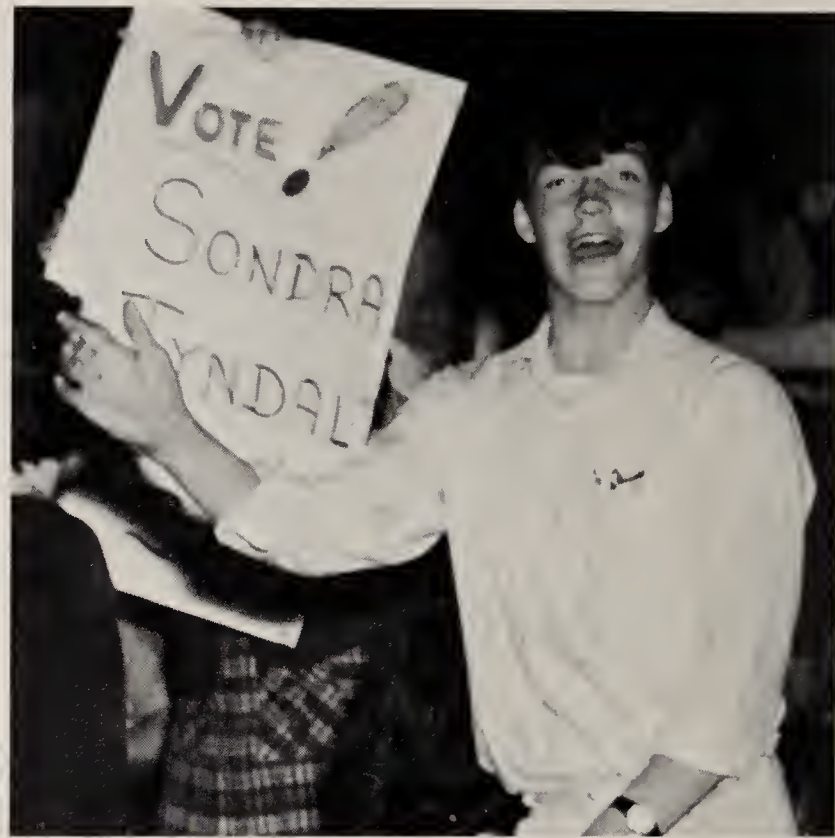

There was the great new world outside of school to — and we found the time to explore it. The adult world merged with ours as we found jobs to earn extra money and to gain experience. There were the hours we spent helping others; as candy strippers, as part of a church project, as members of various service organizations. There were dance bands to form, hobbies to pursue, sports to master. These were the times to free the curiosity, to release the vital enthusiasm of youth.

We look behind us at the past year and dream, for every yesterday is but a dream. The year is at an end but the memories remain; of Booster Day and a loyal horse, of Senior Slop Day and "Arsenic and Old Lace," of Championship Cross-Country and Basketball teams, of elections and dances and endless classes. Time goes forward yet still we pause and look to the past.

1968

Mike Rau, President; Sue Lapointe, Treasurer; Ann Ruggeri, Vice-President; Betsey Yetter, Secretary.

Afraid and apprehensive

they came in September and groped their way down unknown passages

Among the new and strange they stood alone, apart until

Gaining confidence they built a bonfire,

elected officers, joined clubs, and soon

They had become an integral part of the school.

The Inbetween Year

When

you're always too young — or too old

When

it's never your turn to build a bonfire

When

you're active club members — but seldom officers

When

"Paradise of the Deep" becomes a delightful memory

It's been so long now — dreaming of senior Year

And suddenly — it's almost here.

The Return of the Dead.

Our high school years are over. Nostalgia has overcome us for a moment — but it must pass. There is a time to look backward, but we must now look to the future. A new era of our lives is dawning, an era of excitement, new experiences, new horizons. The future is a vision, we must make it a vision of hope.

Greenfield Drills? Yes, Greenfield Drills!

Most tool users know that GREENFIELD taps are tops in their field. But, they are not so familiar with our other top line, . . . DRILLS. Yes, DRILLS!

And that's partly our fault. Guess we have talked about taps so much, that our Drill story has not come through loud and clear.

But, we are correcting all that, you'll be hearing a lot about GREENFIELD DRILLS too, the perfect companions for GREENFIELD taps. Not a side line . . . not a short line . . . but a full line . . . full fledged partner.

You use GREENFIELD taps now? Fine, then go all the way, go GREENFIELD DRILLS too!

PERMANENT INVESTMENTS

We congratulate you upon the completion of your High School course. Your diploma is the symbol of a wise investment in permanent values — values that will be a sound foundation for continued growth, wherever you go, whatever you do.

Sometime in the future you will have a need for tools — for your job, or your hobby or home repairs. When this time comes, look for the Millers Falls trademark — the symbol of permanency on tools. Since 1868 we have constantly searched for better materials, designs, and finishes to give lifetime utility to the tools we manufacture. Given reasonable care these tools will “season” in use, taking on a character all your own and will be lifetime friends known and proven by the work they perform.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Words of thanks dropped on a printed page like so many grains of thoughtless sand but mine are sincere to Mrs. Louisa Barclay for experience and guidance to Mr. Howard Boucher for providing the impetus needed for a record-breaking advertising campaign to Mr. George Rosa for putting up with last minute photographic emergencies to Mr. J. Robert Vail for his continuous cooperation to Ruth, Ray, Bill, Jane, Mike, Ellen and all the others who helped make this book possible to you all a special thanks.
